To Users of This Directory

We have cooperated in producing this directory. That it will turn out to be 100 per cent perfect, can hardly be expected.

It will be commented on, both favorably and unfavorably. If you have any comments to make either way, write it down and send it to us. These comments will serve as a guide for the making of future directories.

Only through public cooperation can anything like a first-class directory be published. We want Bristol to have the best.

This Publication Is The Product of a Member of

—thus assuring you the ultimate service that skill and care can produce in the way of City Directories or other reference media, and providing protection against fraudulent advertising schemes which operate under the name of Directories.

The following "Standards of Practice," adopted at the inception of the Association of North American Directory Publishers in 1898, and strictly adhered to over the years, is your guarantee of satisfactory Directory Service.

The publisher of a Directory should dedicate his best efforts to the cause of business uplift and social service, and to this end pledges himself:

1. To consider, first, the interest of the user of the book.

2. To subscribe to and work for truth, honesty and accuracy in all departments.

3. To avoid confusing duplication of listings, endeavoring to classify every concern under the one heading that best describes it, and to treat additional listings as advertising, to be charged for at regular rates.

4. To increase public knowledge of what Directories contain; to study public needs and make Directories to supply them; to revise and standardize methods and classifications, so that what is wanted may be most easily found, and the Directory be made to serve its fullest use as a business and social reference book and director of buyer and seller.

5. To decline any advertisement which has a tendency to mislead or which does not conform to business integrity.

6. To solicit subscriptions and advertising solely upon the merits of the publications.

7. To avoid misrepresentation by statement or inference regarding circulation, placing the test of reference publicity upon its accessibility to seekers, rather than on the number of copies sold.

8. To co-operate with approved organization and individuals engaged in creative advertising work.

9. To avoid unfair competition.

10. To determine what is the highest and largest function of Directories in public service, and then to strive in every legitimate way to promote that function.

$100 Reward will be paid by the Association of North American Directory Publishers for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons engaged in the publishing, collecting or canvassing for any fraudulent or fake directories.

INTRODUCTION

HILL DIRECTORY CO., Inc., publishers of Southeastern Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1942 edition of the Bristol City Directory, which also includes Kings Town, North Bristol and Virginia Heights. A new feature, the listing of telephone numbers (in both Alphabetical and Householders sections), marks this edition.

Confidence in the growth of Bristol's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Bristol to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL'S Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty co-operation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Bristol Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the community.

Five Major Departments

The five major departments are arranged in the following order:—

THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns is included in pages 25 to 498, on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Bristol and vicinity, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation. A feature of this section is the designation of the number of children under Directory-listing age in each household. A new feature is the listing of telephone numbers.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE, preceding the Classified and separately paged from 1 to 42, on goldenrod paper, contains the advertisements of leading manufacturing, business and professional interests of Bristol and vicinity. The advertisements are indexed under headings descriptive of the business represented. This is reference advertising at its best, and merits a survey by all buyers eager to familiarize themselves with sources of supply. In a progressive community like Bristol, the necessity of having this kind of information immediately available, is obvious. General appreciation of this fact is evidenced by the many reference users of this City Directory service.

THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY is included in pages 543 to 622, on yellow paper. This department lists the names of all business and professional concerns of the whole community in alphabetical order under appropriate headings. This feature constitutes an invaluable and indispensable catalog of the numerous interests of the community. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller. As such it plays an important part in the daily activities of the commercial and professional world. More buyers and sellers meet through the Classified Business Directory than through any other medium.

THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, on pink paper, covers pages 623 to 707. In this section the named streets are arranged in alphabetical order, followed by the numbered streets in numerical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. A feature of this section is the designation of tenant-owned homes. A new feature is the listing of telephone numbers.

Community Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the community, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Bristol and vicinity. There are more than 500 of these Directory Libraries, installed and maintained in the chief cities of the U. S. and Canada through the courtesy of members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated and of which the Hill Directory Co. is a member.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

UNIQUE LOCATION

BRISTOL, VA.-TENN., is the largest community in the U. S. located directly upon a state line, where the line between the two states and the two cities which make up the community, lies in the center of its main business street.

The official 1940 U. S. Census showed a population of 23,772 within the corporate limits, and approximately 8,000 in suburban districts adjoining the cities.

HISTORY

LAND: Bristol had its beginning in Colonial days. The early name for the spot was Sapling Grove. In the surveyor's book of Augusta County, Va., is a map and plat of a survey bearing the legend: "Surveyed for John Tayloe, of Richmond County, 1,946 acres on Shallow Creek of middle fork of Indian River at a place called Sapling Grove, Feb. 22, 1749."

Natural Tunnel, Near Bristol

Sapling Grove is now Bristol, Shallow Creek is now Beaver Creek, and Indian River is now Holston River. Augusta County then included western Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio.

The Sapling Grove tract passed from John Tayloe to James Patton, thence in 1768 to Evan Shelby and Isaac Baker, each taking title to one half the original tract of 1,946 acres.

The Isaac Baker interest passed to his son William, who in 1799 sold 348 acres to Col. John Goodson for $3,000. Upon this land was laid out the town of Goodson (now Bristol), Va. It remained unincorporated until 1856.

The Evan Shelby half of the original tract passed in 1814 to Col. James King for the sum of $10,000. In 1852, J. R. Anderson purchased 100 acres at $100 per acre from Rev. James King, son of Col. James King.

Upon the lands of John Goodson and J. R. Anderson was laid out the town of Goodson (now Bristol) Va., and Bristol, Tenn. It was incorporated in 1856 and named after Bristol, England.

In 1771, Col. Evan Shelby built a stockade and trading post on the hill near the present site of the First Presbyterian Church. Here the frontiersmen traded their skins for powder and lead. Daniel Boone was a frequent customer of Shelby's. It was here that Shelby, Campbell and Sevier planned the campaign, resulting in the defeat of the

Abrams Falls, Near Bristol

British under Col. Ferguson at the Battle of Kings Mountain (N. C.), 1780. This battle had an important bearing on the success of Washington at Yorktown.

The valleys of the upper tributaries of the Tennessee River, such as the Holston and Watauga, provided the natural gateways for the passage of settlers moving westward. At the time of the Revolutionary War, the land in what is now southwest Virginia and east Tennessee, was well taken up. Feeling aggrieved over the lack of protection afforded by the State governments against the constant Indian forays, and fearing the National Government would neglect them, the residents of the territory west of the Blue Ridge under the leadership of John Sevier, set up the independent state of Franklin. This movement was not recognized by either the state or Federal governments and lasted but four years, from 1785 to 1789 (See Taylor's "Historic Sullivan").

Grey Hosiery Mills, Bristol, Va.

North Carolina in 1784 and Virginia in 1786, passed acts which enabled the Federal Government to take jurisdiction over the land west of the mountains under the name of "The Territory South of the Ohio River." President Washington made Wm. Blount the first governor of the Territory. The first capitol was established at the home of Wm. Cobb, 15 miles southwest of Bristol. Kentucky was made a State in 1792, followed by Tennessee in 1796.

THE STATE LINE: When in 1663 Charles II granted to Edward, Earl of Clarendon, the lands south of Virginia, the dividing line between the Carolinas and Virginia was roughly placed at 36 degrees 30 minutes N.

This line was to run due west until it reached the "South Seas," as provided in the Virginia Charter of 1607 and the Carolina Charter of 1663. The royal grants overlapped and for over 200 years a quarrel ensued. In 1711 commissions from Virginia and North Carolina failed to agree. In 1728 a line at 36 degrees 31 minutes N. was run to the Dan River, 241 miles inland.

Bristol Weaving Mills, Bristol, Tenn.

In 1749 the survey was extended 88 miles to Steep Rock Creek. In 1779 another commission was named to extend the line still westward. Unable to locate accurately the point on Steep Rock Creek where the last survey terminated, they endeavored to locate 36 degrees 31 minutes N. latitude as a starting point. A line was then run 45 miles to Carters Valley, where a disagreement occurred and each set of commissions ran an independent line westward to the Cumberland Mountains.

The two lines paralleled each other about two miles apart. Trouble ensued, and in 1802 another set of commissions was formed. Failing to agree on a starting point, they ran a new line midway between the lines previously run.

This compromise line was confirmed and adopted as the line dividing the two states by the Virginia and Tennessee legislatures in 1803. It has not been changed since, except within the city limits of Bristol.

The compromise line of 1803 ran along the north side of Main (now State) Street. In 1881 the two cities, by ordinance, conceded that for local administrative purposes, the line within the city limits should be regarded as the center of Main (now State) Street.

This act did not settle the matter. City governments do not have jurisdiction over States lines. As a result of an attempt in 1886 for final settlement of the controversy, a case was taken to the Supreme Court of the U. S. The Supreme Court confirmed the compromise of 1803 and the trouble began all over again.

Virginia Intermont College, Bristol, Va.

In 1903 the State of Tennessee ceded to Virginia that part of the state lying within the city of Bristol, Tenn., and north of the center line of State Street. This settled the matter, and the brass markers seen today in the middle of State Street definitely mark the State Line.

In 1856 a railroad reached Bristol. The Atlanta, Mississippi & Ohio Railroad, now the Norfolk & Western, was built in from the east, and the East Tennessee Railroad, now the Southern Railway, was built in from the west. From the very beginning of its development, Bristol has been an important trading center and has continued in this respect through all the passing years. It was not until the last years of the 19th Century that Bristol began its development as an industrial center. The first industries of importance were iron and steel furnaces and woodworking establishments. Iron was found in the surrounding hills, and the country was a vast forest of the finest hardwoods. Iron-working passed out with the development of the cheap iron-ore deposits in Michigan and Minnesota.

BRISTOL TODAY

Within 70 miles of Bristol lay a vast supply of fine bituminous coal, and this, coupled with the supply of hardwoods, resulted in the development of other industries. Today Bristol's industries are diversified and normally give employment to over 4,000 people. Its leading manufactured products consist of paper, leather, veneers, mine cars, drugs, overalls, ladies' dresses, silk, rayon, nylon and cotton hosiery, thread, knit underwear, lumber and wood products, candy, caskets, machinery, rayon cloth, truck trailers, mirrors, sanding machines, aircraft (wood plastic), and other articles of commerce (See list of manufacturers at end of story).

Bristol early developed keen interest in education, and its public school systems are modern in every respect, with two high schools and 17 elementary schools for white students, and two high schools for colored students. It has three colleges of considerable importance. Sullins College and Virginia Intermont College, both girls' schools, each accommodate in excess of 300 boarding students and many day students. King College, established in 1867, an important junior college, is co-educational. Bristol Commercial College, a well-equipped business institution, prides itself on having successful graduates scattered the country over. These colleges are attended by students from all parts of the U. S. and several foreign countries.

Columbia Paper Co., Bristol, Va.

Excellent highways radiate in all directions. U. S. Highway 11 is the important highway from the Northeast to the Southwest, and makes up a part of the well-known and much-traveled, "BROADWAY OF AMERICA." U. S. Highway 421, running from Cumberland Gap, Ky., to Wilmington, N. C., is well paved and an important road. Bristol is surrounded by mountains, with an elevation up to 5,000 feet above sea level, and within easy driving distance of the city are many historic and scenic locations. Not far away is Roan Mountain, from the top of which, 6,200 feet above sea level, can be seen the most beautiful natural rhododendron gardens in America, in full bloom about June 15. Six miles northeast is Abrams Falls, located in a forest with all the beauty with which nature endowed it. Forty miles northwest in Scott County, Va., is the Natural Tunnel, one of the scenic wonders of Virginia. This tunnel must be seen to be appreciated. To the south, in the Holston Mountains, is located the Unaka National Forest, literally filled with sylvan beauty.

Bristol's climate is moderate. With an elevation of some 1,800 feet above sea level, it enjoys a summer temperature which is at all times delightful. A typical summer day might range from a temperature of 70 degrees at midnight to 86 degrees in mid-afternoon. A typical winter day might range in temperature from 31 degrees at night to 50 degrees in mid-afternoon. The annual rainfall is well distributed throughout the year, and over a period of 20 years has averaged in the neighborhood of 45 inches per year, ranging from an average low of 2.66 inches in October to 4.78 inches in March. The months of May, June and July will average above four inches.

Along the nearby rivers are many beautiful sites for camping and recreation. There are a number of well-equipped commercial camps for both boys and girls. The Boy Scouts camp in the Holston Mountains is one of the best.

The State of Tennessee has under construction (1941) a 2,000-acre State park within two miles of Bristol. According to reports, this will be one of Tennessee's best recreational areas when finished about 1944.

Bristol has a pure, abundant supply of water derived from several sources. On the Virginia side it comes from mountain springs. Bristol, Tenn., is supplied from the Holston River by a very up-to-date, modern water works built in 1936-37 at a cost of over $700,000. In addition to its splendid railroad service and its highways, Bristol is on the Southern Transcontinental Line of the American Airlines and Pittsburgh-Birmingham line of the Pennsylvania Central Air Lines. Its airport, recently built at a cost of over $750,000, is of the best.

A large majority of Bristol's population is native-born. The foreign-born population is less than 1% of the total. Negro population is about 10%. The many advantages which can be had in the way of education and climatic and industrial conditions, make Bristol a desirable place of residence, and it has adopted as a slogan, "A Good Place to Live."

Bristol has three banks, with total assets aggregating $10,180,000. It has two excellent daily newspapers, morning and evening. Its postal receipts were $234,423.14 in 1940. It has 5,738 telephones in service, a total of 8,315 urban and rural electric customers, and 6,018 water customers. It has 32 churches, four theatres, two hospitals, a public library with over 8,000 volumes, a broadcasting station, a fine municipal stadium, excellent hotels, a fine Y. M. C. A., a beautiful country club and golf course, and a swimming pool.

Bristol has a well-supported Chamber of Commerce, alive to public needs, which earnestly solicits inquiries from potential industries, tourists and people who are looking for a fine place to make their home. It gladly answers all inquiries. If you are interested in further facts regarding Bristol, write the Bristol Chamber of Commerce.

When You Want to Know:

- where a person lives.
- what his occupation is.
- who lives at a certain number on a street.
- where a street is located.
- the correct spelling of a name.
- the officers of a corporation.
- the partners in a firm.
- the solution to any of scores of problems that pop up unexpectedly to annoy and baffle you.
- you can quickly find the answer in the City Directory.

TRADE! You like to patronize those concerns who are in business to stay.

It is natural to expect that such business establishments always stand back of what they sell.

The advertising in this Directory is suggestive of the stability and permanence of the advertisers.

Frauds, fakes, get-rich-quick and other schemers have little use for directory advertising. It lives too long.

The modern City Directory is a business institution. It occupies a place peculiarly its own. It is as necessary to the progress and development of a city generally as anything naturally would be which deals with such a fundamental as the citizens themselves.

If you are not advertising your business in the Directory, may we explain how and why it will pay you?
