

Masengill Bros. Company's Building

MASENGILL BROS. CO.

No better evidence is needed to convince manufacturers of other localities of the desirability of Bristol as a place to locate than by citing conspicuous examples of success attained by some of our manufacturers and wholesalers, and in this respect the firm known as MASENGILL BROS. CO. stands out prominently. They are manufacturing pharmacists and WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS, who established their business here in 1899 and incorporated it in 1907 for $50,000.00. The business has been developed by straightforward methods and well directed effort to the point that $150,000.00 of their products are handled annually. They occupy a modern five-story brick building, admirably adapted and well equipped for their purpose, utilizing 20,000 feet of floor space, and employ twenty-five people, of whom four are traveling salesmen who cover all of the Southern States. Officers of the MASENGILL BROS. CO. are: S. F. MASENGILL, president; LEE W. SAMS, vice-president; N. H. MASENGILL, secretary-treasurer; and M. L. FOWLER, vice-president.

BRISTOL ETHYL AND INDUSTRIAL CO.

This company was established and incorporated in 1907 for $10,000.00 to manufacture and distribute ALCOHOL, and is the largest institution of its character in this section. A most extensive business has been built up, which extends to all parts of the Southern States. The firm transacted a business last year amounting to over $45,000 and paid out in wages to their eight employees $3,000.00. The business is housed in a modern building, three-storied, and has over twenty thousand square feet of available floor space. Their product, PURE GRAIN ALCOHOL, is used only for chemical, pharmaceutical and medicinal purposes. Officers of the company are: Messrs. R. H. MARTIN, president; S. E. MASENGILL, vice-president; and N. H. MASENGILL, secretary and treasurer.

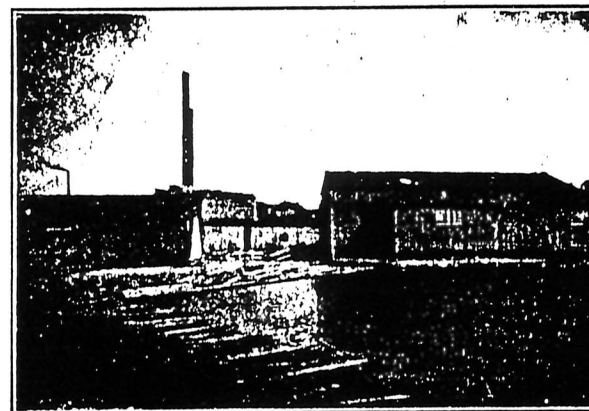

The Southern Railway furnishes jobbers the best distributing service in the South.
