VIRGINIA INTERMONT COLLEGE, BRISTOL, VA., NOVEMBER 24, 1947.

No. 5.

V.I. TO PRESENT PROGRAMS OVER STATION WOPI

Students Will Be In Charge Of Weekly Broadcasts

Virginia Intermont now has its own radio program over Bristol station WOPI, which is broadcast every Thursday at 9 P. M. The program to be presented over this show are to be made up by the students.

Under the direction of Miss Alyce Aaron, assistant dramatics teacher, two performances have already been presented. The first program on November 13, included a brief talk by Beatrice Abbot on the trials and tribulations of radio announcing. Virginia Lucy, a senior at V. I., sang "Summertime" by Gershwin, "Strange Music" by Greig, and Strauss's "My Hero". Teddy Nelson, a junior, played Cole Porter's "Begin The Beguine" and "Night And Day" on the piano.

A program of South American and Hawaiian music was presented on the broadcast of November 20. Josephine Char, Aileen Char, Virginia Char, Mabel Yang, and Loretta Yang sang "Kama Hila", "Ima Au", "Ia Oe", "There's A Perfume", and "Aloha Oe", all Hawaiian songs. They were accompanied by Virginia Char who played the ukulele. The South American girls, Jean Palmer, Heather Palmer, Yvonne De Lawder, Barbara Harris, Patricia Harris, Mercie Riba, and Sylvia Zebadua sang "Solamente Una Vez", and "El Rancho Grande." Louise Leslie accompanied the group on the piano. Miss Leslie also played "Waltz" by Chopin.

TEDDY NELSON IS JUNIOR PRESIDENT

Warren, Vice-President; Millsaps, Secretary; Jolliffe, Treasurer

Teddy Nelson, of Roanoke, Va., was elected President of the Junior College class on Wednesday, November 19. The students also elected Phyllis Warren as Vice-President, Charlotte Millsaps as Secretary, and Janet Jolliffe as Treasurer.

The girls who were candidates for office were: for president, Teddy Nelson, Mary Lawrence Walker and Dorothy McDowell; for Vice-President, Phyllis Warren and Betsy Cox; for Secretary, Charlotte Millsaps, Bea Minor, and Betty Baker; for Treasurer, Janet Jolliffe, Judy Davis, and Doris Davis. These students were chosen by a nominating committee consisting of Bea Minor, Libby Cook, Mary Lawrence Walker, Teddy Nelson, and Frankie Fowler, on the basis of dependability, loyalty to their class, scholarship, and leadership ability.

Teddy was leader of her class in the Song Contest, is a member of the Glee Club, and is also a new pledge to Phi Beta, National Music Fraternity for Junior Colleges.

INTERMONT TO FORM A RED CROSS UNIT

V. I. has petitioned to organize a College Unit of the American Red Cross here on campus, it was announced by Doris Watson, president of Student Government. The plan was presented by Mr. J. L. Wilson, Field Representative of the American Red Cross, who spoke to the Student Government of Intermont on Wednesday, November 12. Mr. Wilson explained the function of the Red Cross College Units, related something of their history and service, and explained procedure for forming the unit on campus.

The College Unit of the Red Cross, formed to provide students on college and university campuses with an organization through which they can help plan and administer their volunteer activities in the community, was created in 1942, answering a demand of students to be identified with the Red Cross in the war effort.

Mr. Wilson stressed the need for

Attorney Leads Forum on Social Problems

Mr. Ward Grey, District Attorney for Green, Sullivan and Morris Counties, Tennessee, was guest speaker at a forum held during the Business Law, Economics, Psychology, and Sociology classes, Friday morning, November 14, at V. I. Mr. Grey held an open discussion on many basic social problems which he confronts as District Attorney. In the discussion, Mr. Grey presented actual case histories to the students.

For several years Mr. Grey has held such forums on various college campuses in this locality. "I am curious and interested to know student's opinions and verdicts on such cases as I must solve everyday as a servant of the people," stated Mr. Grey. This was his first visit to V. I.'s campus.

Phi Theta Kappa Pledges Cevarich

Wanda Cevarich, a senior was pledged to Phi Theta Kappa, National Scholastic Fraternity, in the morning chapel exercise November 11.

Doris Davidson, president of the organization, officiated at the program, and introduced the other officers, who are Joan Miller, Vice-President; Joanna Maiden, Secretary; and Ann Neblett, Treasurer.

To be eligible for Phi Theta Kappa, a student must be taking twelve hours of liberal arts subjects, and must make an average of 90, with nothing below a B.

Phi Theta Kappa, a National Honorary Scholastic Society originated in Missouri Colleges in 1910, and is an organization for Junior Colleges only. The Virginia Intermont chapter was founded in 1926, and is now under the supervision of Miss Marguerite Pflug, Academic Dean. Other members of the fraternity include June Crockett, Doris Davidson, Millicent Broglin, Joan Miller, Joanna Maiden, Ann Neblett, Mary Evelyn Dewey, and Doris Watson.

SONG CONTEST NOT IN THIS ISSUE

Because the Cauldron goes to press Thursday, November 20, the results of the annual Song Contest, to be held Saturday, November 22, do not appear in this issue. Pictures of the Song Contest, however, will appear in the next issue of the paper, December 8.

V.I. GIRLS DONATE TURKEY DINNER TO FRIENDSHIP TRAIN

Hungry Europe To Get Intermont's Thanksgiving Dinner

Students of V. I. C. unanimously voted at Chapel, Tuesday morning, to give their Thanksgiving dinner to the hungry people of Europe and asked that the college put aboard the Friendship Train food equal in amount to that which would have been served them at their annual Thanksgiving banquet.

The interest of the students in taking part in the drive to feed hungry Europe was spontaneous and enthusiastic. A plan was presented whereby a selected meal would be contributed to the Friendship Train, but the motion was made and unanimously approved that the big meal of November 27 would be omitted. Thus, the annual Thanksgiving dinner, is generally considered one of the biggest social events of the school year.

The Friendship Train, which stopped in Bristol on Wednesday, November 19, originally started as a publicity stunt by Drew Pearson, has grown with the generosity and good-will of the American people beyond all expectations.

Phi Beta Pledges Honored With Tea

Members of the alumnae chapter Phi Beta, National Music Fraternity, gave a tea, Sunday afternoon, November 2, for the active members and pledges (Virginia Intermont Chapter) at the home of Mrs. Ernest Dickey on Prospect Avenue.

The alumnae chapter has just been organized with Mrs. Dickey as alumnae advisor.

Mrs. Samuel Schroetter, faculty advisor of the V. I. chapter,

THE MISSING PICTURES

Several very interesting pictures were planned for this edition of the "Cauldron," including one of the play, "Brief Music." The plates did not reach the printers in time to make this issue, the staff has been advised. However, we trust you will find today's edition very interesting, as it is "chucked" full of campus news, and gives a good picture of life at V. I.

THIRTY-TWO ON DEAN'S LIST FIRST QUARTER

Twenty-five college students and seven high school students were on the Dean's List for the first quarter, ending October 26, Miss Marguerite Pflug, Academic Dean, has announced. The girls obtaining this high scholastic average are as follows: College—Betty Baker, Pauline Barr, Ella Campbell, Wanda Cevarich, Edna Cisneros, June Crockett, Doris Davidson, Doris Davis, Edith Dobbins, Ethel Dominick, June Eller, Phyllis Long, Doris Lugar, Doris Mahanes, Joanna Maiden, Janet Miller, Joan Miller, Ann Neblett, Janet Perry, Frieda Phipps, Marilyn Preston, Judith Robertson, and Doris Watson.

High School: Elizabeth Ann Aull, Mary Jo Baldwin, Sylvia Cash, Mary Epling, Eleanor Everhard, Earliyn Morrison, and Marie Sleep.

To be eligible for the Dean's List, a student must make A on at least three full-time subjects, no grade below B on academic work, and A on Citizenship.

Miss O'Brien Speaks At Y. W. A. Meeting

Miss Mamie Lee O'Brien, director of the local Good Will Center, was the speaker of the evening at a meeting of the Virginia Intermont Y. W. A., Tuesday night, November 11, in the College Chapel.

Her subject was the work of Good Will Center and the necessity of making the public realize its importance in a Community. Miss O'Brien stressed the fact that anyone can help out in this work, if she is interested in it.

The speaker was introduced by Bettie Boyd, president of the Y. W. A., who also read the scripture.

The Y. W. A. has just completed its project of sending a package of articles, useful to kindergarten children, to Miss Margie Shumate, former V. I. student, now a missionary in Shui Hing, Kwong Tung, China, for use in her Baptist mission there.

V. I. Faculty Host To Sullins, King

The faculty of Virginia Intermont College was host to members of the faculty from Sullins and King College at a reception given at V. I. on Tuesday night, November 11.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Wall of Sullins, Miss Irez Morton of King, and Misses Marguerite Pflug and Leonora Dorsey of V. I.

Pouring tea and coffee from antique silver urns were Mrs. Dwight H. Willett, Mrs. Mae Harper, Miss Mary Meade, Mrs. Dora Miller, Mrs. S. O. Snodgrass, Mrs. Berge Fritsche, and Mrs. James Turner.

"BRIEF MUSIC" IS PRESENTED BY DRAMATICS DEPT.

Three-Act Comedy About College Life Given November 15

Brief Music, a sentimental comedy by Emmett Lavery, the first three act play of the year, was presented by the Dramatics Department of Virginia Intermont College, under the direction of Mrs. M. C. H. Eastman, on Saturday, November 15.

Members of the cast included Marion Powers as Spiff, "the college amazon"; Ann Hawthorne as Drizzle, "a poet on the wing;" Eunice Long as Lovey, "the class beauty;" Betty Wisor as Maggie who is "left of left"; Ann Bingham as Rosey, "the college oracle;" straggler;" and Marjorie Scheere as Minnie, "a college snootie."

The plot centers around three years in the lives of seven girls and depicts the reactions of each type of personality to college life.

Drizzle, who has a girlish crush on Lovey, attempts to commit suicide when she learns her roommate plans to elope. It is Spiff's strength of character which overcomes Drizzle's melancholy and brings her back to college for her junior year.

A new attraction on the campus, handsome, young playwright Jeffrey Allen has all the girls professing their love for him. Spiff and Drizzle alone seem to make headway with first one and then the other snaring for his affections. The fact that each one thinks Jeff loves her almost causes a break in the friendship of Spiff and Drizzle. Jeff gives Drizzle the self-confidence she needs to write Brief Music, a group of poems, "silhouettes of people and things we all know . . . gay—and light—and fleeting."

V.I. GIRLS ATTEND E.&H. HOMECOMING

Students Guests of College for Football Game and Party

Seventy V. I. Juniors and Seniors participated in the Emory and Henry College Homecoming Day festivities at Emory, Virginia, on Saturday, November 15. The group attended the football game, in which Emory and Henry was defeated 7-0 by Concord College of West Virginia. At the half, Miss Jean Barnhill was crowned Homecoming Queen, and the Richlands High School band and the freshman "Rat" stunt entertained the crowd.

The V. I. visitors were guests of the college for dinner, a reception, and a Sadie Hawkins Day Festival in the gymnasium. Miss Jane Pratt, an Intermont Junior was selected the most attractive V. I. girl present, and was presented with a corsage. Entertainment included contests, cake-walks, and dancing.

The group was accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Turner, Mrs. Walter Crockett, Mrs. R. C. Hamner, and Miss Hope Pearson.

TB Or Not TB

It can happen to you! Yes, tuberculosis does not wait to strike the rich or the poor, the fortunate or the unfortunate; it knows no race, color, or creed. Today, more than half a million Americans are in rest homes or sanitoriums fighting and curing this disease. Many doctors and nurses all over the country are helping these people to become well, and you, too, may have a part in bringing them back to health. This may be done by supporting the Tuberculosis Association through the purchase of Christmas seals. In order to help with this worthy effort, why not give up that extra coke or trip to the "Teahole" and contribute your nickels and dimes to this drive? Give now and give generously!

I STOOP TO CONQUER

The week-end of the Harvest Carnival proved to be very successful in the eyes (and hearts) of a number of V. I. gals. Lynette Agostinia seemed to be all smiles cause her Claude from Norfolk came down to see her. Jane Hannah tried hard to enjoy her date with Charlie Peters, but Eileen Hillert seemed to have had her eyes on him, too. Maggie Jacobs had a big time, cause her man from Washington was here, too.

It seems that Anne Hawthorne's Otie is not only king of her heart, but king of the season, also. Her roommate, Bettie Boatman was seen looking starry eyed at her Bill, who is one of those loveable Techmen. . . . how's about it, Bo?

Jane Edmonds, that popular senior, was seen with a tall, good-looking blonde last week-end. Blind dates can be fun, eh, Jane?

It seems that the week-end of November 1st was full of thrills for some gals who left V. I.'s campus, too. . . . Edith Bishop went to the University of Kentucky's dances. Doris Watson went home to see her man and seemed to have had a most enjoyable week-end. Bea Minor went up to Annapolis to see a certain someone and returned all smiles.

Margaret Eskew really had the time of her life when she went home not long ago. She not only returned with a beautiful ATO frat pin and a portable radio, but last week the frat boys sent her an orchid to welcome her as one of THEIR girls.

Miss McCroskey was seen at the dance with her man who is a professor at the University of North Carolina.

Marty Cruikshank seems to be the gal who smiles every day when she walks out of the post office. Could those two daily letters from Bob be the reason? "Dumpsy" hasn't been doing badly either. there's a certain West Pointer who keeps her box full.

It seems that "Frog" really prover herself worthy of her name the other day when she leaped out of the chemistry lab window. Leap Frog!

In closing, the snooped will leave with this daffynition: A chaperone is an older person who goes along with a young crowd to see that they don't do the things she wishes she were young enough to do!

FASHIONS FOR FREEZING WEATHER

These windy mornings we roll over and wonder how we will ever be warm when we get outside. Nancy Sheffield pounds on the door and enters in her blue-jeans and a discarded navy shirt. Jean Feindt is right behind her in a plaid sport shirt. Both seem warm enough, so we grab our old blue flannel housecoat and wiggle our toes into fleece-lined slippers, and proceed down the hall to see who else is up.

Doris Davis stifles a yawn as she appears in her white flannel night gown which is similar to the one which Eleanor Lupton wears, which is complete with old-fashioned lace and tucks. Although we are all freezing, Jane Edmonds seems completely warm in her brown and white stripe Tommie-Coat.

By this time Margaret Eskew has donned her red plaid suit which has a straight skirt and box jacket. Margaret and Marjorie are on their way to get the mail for the sleepy heads.

Sarah Pritchett appears in a pair of blue and white striped PJ's. with tight cuffs and Anna Lee Sealf pokes her head out the door, dressed in her pedal pusher pajamas which have gaudy yellow, blue, and orange diamonds, to see what is going on.

By this time Apartment B is aroused. Helen Glazebrook opens the door and shocks us in a pair of the loudest blue and white polka-dot pajamas that anyone has ever seen. Inside, a visitor, Helen Burgard is seen in a white satin gown with lots of lace. All that is visible of Tex Richardson is one foot, extending from the covers, draped with a long wool sock held up with a rubber band. Nancilyn Miller is dressed in a suit, consisting of a green corduroy box jacket lined with plaid to match the straight skirt. She is making an early departure for chapel. Ann Hawthorne has already braved the cold wrapped in her green camels hair coat in order to put up the mail.

Well, girls, we'll see you outside in your best fortification against the blustering wind, which promises colder weather and snow.

PERSONALITY PARADE

JEWEL WALKER

"What is Intermont to me?" "The Song Contest is Intermont to me," replied a familiar voice. "The Song Contest means everything!" And so it does. . . . for that voice belonged to the 1947 Senior Song Leader, the 1946 Junior Song Leader, and the High School Song Leader for 1944-45, Jewel Walker.

Four straight years as song leader is quite a record, but Jewel is good at setting records. This year marks her third year as B. S. U. President, and her fifth year as a student on V. I.'s campus.

Jewel, who hails from Jacksonville, Florida, stands 5'6" tall. And every inch of that 5'6" is exerted every waking minute to help someone in anyway possible.

When asked for some comment on the Song Contest, Jewel suddenly had a perplexed expression. She sat quite still for a few moments before answering. "How can I ever say what the Song Contest means to me? I can't really. It has been a part of all the joy and love I have known at V. I. these five years.

"This year it means more because I realize there are no more Song Contests for me—no more classes like 'My Seniors'. But I shall always have my memories to cherish of you and you and you. They will be a never-ending melody that will keep ringing in my heart wherever I go."

Yes, these are the words of Jewel Walker, Senior Song Leader.

DELORES DEAK

"O. K. High School — let's SING!" If we all could attend the H. S. song contest meetings we would hear these very official words, exerted with very official dignity, by a VERY little girl. And when "very" is used in the latter, it is most emphatic, for Delores Deak, High School Song Leader, has to stretch every muscle to hit the 4 feet 10 1/2 inch mark. But being the shortest girl in the H. S. doesn't affect the efficiency of the "Mighty Midget"—not in the least. Delores has put into existence some fine examples of leadership.

Before coming to V. I. this year, where she is now a H. S. Senior, Delores lived in New Brunswick, New Jersey. While a sophomore at St. Peters High in New Brunswick, she wrote the "Class Night" song.

Looking toward the future, Delores hopes to obtain a position as a typing and shorthand teacher.

The song contest is a new thing for the little song leader, but she has put her best foot forward to see that the H. S. will have an opportunity to engrave again their name on that favorite plague.

TEDDY NELSON

The audience waits in hushed anticipation. Not a cough, not a sneeze is heard. Then as a sudden wave breaking across the shore, the audience explodes into clamoring applause. Theodosia Nelson, the world renowned pianist takes her seat at the large concert grand. Her limber fingers nimbly began to weave a spell over the enthralled crowd. With each melodious note Theodosia turns back the pages of time to the days when she was just Teddy Nelson, struggling student. — 1947 — Virginia Intermont College—I was a Junior then. My junior year—a wonderful memory! I was Song Leader that year. What a wonderful feeling it was to stand before "my" class and hear their voices ringing to the very notes I knew so well. And such a dear bunch of girls there were! I wanted to tell them how much they meant to me, but I could never find the words. Expressing a feeling as great as mine for 200 of the dearest friends I've ever known was an emotion I couldn't phrase. If only there were some way I could express my thanks for these memories I have to take through life with me. Just a simple, sincere thank you.—As the last chord died away, Theodosia stood and made a deep gracious bow to the sea of faces before her.

The above setting is purely and wholly imaginary, but the feeling expressed is real and sincere—for it comes from the heart of our Teddy Nelson, Junior Song Leader.

DISC DIGGIN'S

By BETTIE WYSOR

Weel, Hi Gang! Gather 'round once more and let's see what's cookin' in the field of discs, for come January 1, 1948, ends the recording of new songs. Mr. Petrillo says his little union boys ain't going to make no more records.

Out in Hollywood a certain crooner is making a picture called "Miracle Of The Bells" in which he is cast as a priest. You're probably saying to yourself right now, "Well, guess old Crosby is at it again" . . . but this time you're in for a shock, that priest is none other than Frank Sinatra. One of the best for dancing this week is Tommy Dorsey's recording on Victor of "Deep Valley."

If you've ever heard of the Basin Street Boys, they're featured with Lucky Thompson's Orchestra in two fine numbers called, "You're Mine Forever" and "Near To You."

Then again, if you're looking for blues this week drop in and as for the recording of "Down Home Blues" by Joe Liggins and his Honeydrippers . . . they're not drips!

The Pied Pipers do a good job on a new release with Paul Weston, "Just Around The Corner"

ALUMNAE NEWS

After "that" week of excitement and speculation has come to an end, many V. I. girls have been welcomed into many sororities on many campus hills. Down at U. T. Frankie Simpson went Alpha Delta Phi; Barbara Marshall, Beverly Coburn—Delta Gamma; Phyllis Bewley, Lucille Colbach—Tri Deltas; Lois Richardson, Dot Cobb—Kappa Delta; Margaret Wilson—Zeta Tau Alpha; Eudell Rippetoe, Pi Beta Phi. At Duke, Melinda Stern went Alpha Phi; at Chapel Hill Lucille Arnott went Alpha Gamma, with Peppy and Joanne Lucas going Tri Deltas. Down at that powerful U. of Ala. Marjorie Crawford went Delta Zeta, and Doris Puryear went Alpha Chi Omega. At the U. of Ky. Chi Omega captured Hazel Jones, and Kappa Delta lured

Peggy Hewlett into their midst. Melinda Stern has gained the distinctive honor of being chosen as a Student Government representative at Duke. The engagement of Miss Hallie Treibbe to Mr. Kartluke was announced Sunday. Mr. Kartluke is a Marine engineer for a major electrical company in New York City. The wedding will take place sometime in the near future. Edith Golding is continuing her education at State Teachers College, Towson, Maryland. She is planning to become an elementary teacher. Lou Layman says the little tots are teaching her quite a bit about things in general. Got a big week-end coming up—the song contest. Can hardly wait, but it's gonna be terribly lonesome

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

Here's a new column designed to bring you up to date on some of the newest in ideas, events, and humor on other campuses. Don't forget, if you want to know in detail what's going on at V. P. I., Duke, Carolina, U. T., or almost any other college, drop in and enjoy the Cauldron's collection of School Papers in the Browsing room of the Library.

The Sun Dial, Randolph Macon Woman's College: Record Concerts have been instituted for Sunday evenings. On October 25, Tannhauser was presented for an admission of 25c per person. The proceeds will be used to buy more records.

The Carolinian, Woman's College of University of N. C. has a sound idea for gals who are a bit on the "bulging" side of life. They propose a separate dining room, no matter how small (all the more inducement for losing weight) where crisp lettuce, celery curls, carrot sticks will take the place of macaroni, cinnamon buns, and chocolate mousse.

The Southeastern, Southeastern State College: typographical error or polygamy . . . "Miss Faye Wilson, Hugo and Gene Cox were married on September 25 in the home of Rev. J. W. Wade."

The Florida Flambeau, Florida State University, says that the most valuable contribution to an evening bull session is: "Good Night" . . .

Syracuse Daily Orange, Syracuse University: Dr. Beatrice Berle, graduate of Vassar and the Sorbonne, gave a talk in chapel on Necessary Adaptations in Modern Romance. Don't we need that sort of thing as much as the students of Syracuse?

In many college papers campaign have been started to ban corsages for dances because prices are so high. For example, in Glenville Mercury, Glenville State College, is found the following male lament:
Roses are Red
Violets are Blue
Orchids are Ten Bucks
Will Dandelions do?

William Jewel College has added a course in Russian to its curriculum. Indiana University has augmented its study with the culture and history of the Soviet Union. What better way is there to One World than complete understanding of the people and conditions that exist within it?

H. S. Juniors Earn Money for Banquet

The Juniors in High School have announced their intentions of earning money for the Junior-Senior Banquet which is to be held in the spring. Their main project consists of selling sandwiches, donuts and soft drinks in the dormitories on Saturday night. However, they will be only too glad to clean your room, wash your clothes, or carry your laundry to and from the laundry room on Saturday mornings,—all for a reasonable fee, of course.

and "I Want To Be A Friend Of Yours".

And now for the immortal classics. You may obtain albums of the music from one of today's favorite operas, "La Traviata" by Verdi, but it has just been put on wax by the soloists chorus, and orchestra of the Opera House of Rome and conducted by Vincenzo Bellezza.

Eugene Goosens and the Cincinnati Symphony have just turned out a warm and eloquent recording of one of Schumann's loveliest Symphonies, Symphony No. 4; while the Gilet String Quartet gives us a fine recording of Schubert's "String Quartet in E Flat Major."

R. C. A. Victor offers a recording of Rachmaninoff's "Isle Of The Dead". Also by Rachmaninoff is "The Piano Concerto No. 2" very beautifully and movingly interpreted by Mr. Artur Schnabel.

Another popular song has been taken from a Symphonic Composition and is truly beautiful. It is "As Years Go By", taken from Brahms' "Hungarian Rhapsody."

without you when they sing our proclamation song. We're looking forward to Thanksgiving week-end with much delight. Peppy, Piggy, and maybe Bootsie are coming to visit us and it has been rumored that Soapie Sudduth will be here, too. Surely hope she doesn't "de-tour," cause we're so anxious to see all of them. Happy Thanksgiving to you all, please write, and remember, have fun—.

HUT SMUT by MUTT

In talking to the day student alumnae of V. I., I have noticed how many of them mention the good times they had in the Hut, or how they wish that they might have had the benefit of the Hut, which was opened after they graduated from Intermont. Yet how few of us, of the classes around of '48 and '49, realize the friendship we've made around its fireplace or appreciate the shelter it offers from the storms of weather and school life. "The Hut" is the home of the Day Student Body and its history is one of which we may be justly proud. The plaque on the fireplace commemorates this history, and for those who have not seen it, it reads thus:

"Day Students' Social Center
Built in 1940 partly of timbers from Bristol's World War Red Cross Canteen where thousands of soldiers received refreshments. Moved in 1919 to V. I., it served until 1929 as a Y. W. C. A. Student building and the next decade as a Tea House."

Gals, the gossip has really been flying this week in all directions. First of all, I hear more about those Kingsport girls. Take Nadine Gillenwater for example. We expect her to be absent from school any day and its all because the bus is routed through Blountville. Nadine has a man in that big city. His name is Rollins rrazier. Another attractive Kingsport couple is Melba Watson and Melvin Jackson.

Has anyone heard our newest candidates for Phi Beta? Sally Wilson and Peggy Presley have a perfectly lovely duet worked up. They call themselves the Cow Girls.

One Junior seems to have had a gay Halloween. I won't mention any names, but if any of you are down town just look on the left side of H. P. King's new front.

Betsy Cox has a "Jim" in Alaska to whom she writes very very often . . . Donna Williams is still going with the Sweetest boy in the world (Bruce Sweet) . . . Girls!—Did you know Sarah Ann Woolvins has 1,203,657,531 brothers? Hilde Gabriel really has a collection of men—one in South America even. The Big Flame is over in Carolina traveling with the Barter Players . . . at the Carnival Betty Jo Reynolds was waiting anxiously for the Tennessee boys to arrive . . . Joyce Nave was seen with an Emory boy one Sunday.

Well, little Day Students, that's all the news I have room for in

JUNIORS DEFEAT HIGH SCHOOL

Seniors Win From Juniors By 2-1 Score

"Ground sticks", and the game was on. Tuesday, November 4 was an exciting day for the High School and Juniors. Patsy Edwins led the High School, while Mary Lawrence Walker was the captain for the Juniors. Although the field was a little muddy, both teams slid to the finish. The Juniors took top honors by a score of 6-2.

Those playing for the High School were: Yvonne De Lawden, Patsy Edwins, Phyllis Farmer, Jacqueline Cooper, Patty Harris, Josephine Acton, Jo Jennings, Francis Anne Allgair, Shirley Horne, Jacqueline Lamp, Anne Aull, Delores Deak (Sub).

The Junior team was as follows: Jean Blakistone, Helen Torrance, Betty Minor, Phyllis Warren, June Eller, Pauline Allen, Cynthia Davis, Peggy Patrick, Bunny Bunyan, Arny Walker, Ruth Triplett, Agostine Jacob, (Sub).

November 6 was another exciting game. The seniors won a hard battle from the mighty high school team by the score of 4-0. The senior team follows: Barbara Underwood, Sally Graham, Evelyn Dewey, Marjorie Black, Kay Brewer, Margaret Harlan, Virginia Char, Jean Feindt, Anne Henderson, Jane Edmonds, Ruth Warren, Margaret Eskew (Sub).

After many days of postponement the big day arrived, and the juniors and seniors clashed. The juniors were determined to get the ball in the goal, but the seniors were more determined. The final score was 2-1 in favor of the seniors.

Our sincere thanks goes to Miss Myra Stowe, from Sullins College, for the splendid job of refereeing.

Miss Keezel served as score keeper, Frankie Fowler as time keeper, and Miss Droste as referee.

Since the class games are over Miss Droste has been able to pick the Varsity Hockey Team. Here they are: Jean Blakiston, Sally Graham, Helen Torrance, Mary Evelyn Dewey, Jo Jennings, Marjorie Black, Phyllis Warren, Peggy Patrick, Virginia Char, Phyllis Farmer, Anne Henderson, Mary Lawrence Walker, Jane Edmonds, Jean Feindt, Ruth Warren, Ruth Triplett, Betty Minor.

STIRRUP NEWS

Another year of horseback riding is in full swing at V. I. under the able supervision of Mrs. Elsie Edwards and her assistant, Dewey. The classes are filled to capacity, and many new faces may be seen down at the ring and on the trail.

The new girls, together with the old, have responded wholeheartedly to the beginning of the traditional Boots and Saddle Club, and all are looking forward to a really interesting year. By the way, have you paid your dues for the club yet?

Have you seen those new horses yet—"Carnival", "Query", and "Starling"? We're certainly proud of them, as they are great granddaughters of "Man O'War," who, as you know, passed away last week after a long career as one of America's most beloved horses.

Having three new horses will remedy the situation of the mad scramble for each girl's favorite. It isn't hard to find Jo Nichols and Mary Betty Morrison buying apples for their favorite, Juno, and it seems that Blackie is in great demand also. Frankie Fowler, Margi Adelstein, and Gerry Vuyk seem to like her smooth gaits. Earllyn Morrison decided, after riding her choice, "Kennie", that she wanted to be a horse. "Just so I can be near him all the time" she explains.

It's wonderful to get down to the ring after classes are done (are they ever done?) and watch Mrs. Edwards and Dewey take "Lady" and "Ortiz" around for a workout. There's some real riding skill for you.

Clubs Plan For Many Programs and Activities

V. I. Students Enjoying Extra Curricula Activities

The different clubs on the campus are really going with spirit. Most of them have met and elected officers, are pledging new members, are hard at work on various projects, and are busily planning for outings in the near future.

Alpha Pi Epsilon, honorary secretarial fraternity, has met and elected officers. Janet Miller was voted president, Phyllis Long, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Smith is the sponsor of this fraternity.

Phi Theta Kappa, National Honorary Academic Fraternity for Junior Colleges, held an outing last week. The group went to the cabin of Miss Marguerite Pflug for a picnic supper. There they made plans for the initiation of new members and for presentation of a chapel program in the near future.

Invitations have been issued to ten girls for membership in Phi Beta, National Music Fraternity for women. Auditions were held Thursday, October 30, and those invited into the fraternity were, Bea Minor, Thidosia Nelson, Margaret Pendergrakk, Dorothy McDowell, Anna Dee Scalf, Sally Wilson, Eileen Hillert, Joan Earhart, Mary Lawrence Walker, and Joan Bernard. Congratulations to these girls.

Officers of the Art Club were elected at the club's second meeting on November 13. Janet Jolliffe was chosen president; Martina Wade-witz, vice-president; June Fairfield, secretary; and Charmaine Werly, treasurer.

At a recent meeting of the New Jersey Club plans were made to take a trip to the farm of Dr. A. J. Edwards, school physician. The group, which will be chaperoned by Miss Mildred Droste, physical education director, will go on the outing the weekend of November 29.

The following are the girls who will go on the trip; Kay Brewer, president of the club, Phyllis Burritt, Pat Gerds, Janet Jolliffe, Doris Meserroll, Pam Scull, Jean Feindt, Melva Jane Van Orden, Cynthia Davis, Dolores Deak, Helen Burgard, Nancy Sheffield, and Cynthia Richardson.

The Kentucky Club held its first meeting of the year and elected Edith Bishop as president. Other officers chosen at this meeting were Mary Anna Parker, Vice-president; and Libby Rollins, secretary-treasurer. The members are planning a supper at the General Shelby Hotel and an outing to Natural Tunnel, Virginia.

The Tennessee Club, which has one of the largest memberships on the campus, has elected its officers for the school year. They are—Ruth Gump, president; Mary Walker, Vice-president; Margaret Eskew, Secretary-treasurer; Jackie Sprinkle, project and recreation chairman. Miss Gail Keezel is the clubs sponsor.

The Ohio club has begun a very interesting project. With the help of the V. I. Alumnae Association in Cleveland, they are making scrap books which will be sent at Christmas to the children of the Janie Hammett Home.

The Capitol Club has elected officers for the coming year. They are: President, Marie Parrish; Vice-president, Pi-Fi Henry and Secretary-treasurer, Margie Hess. Miss Julia Baumgardner was chosen sponsor.

Mrs. Eston Speaks On T. B. Drive

Mrs. George Easton, Executive Secretary of the Bristol, Va.-Tenn., Tuberculosis Association was the speaker at chapel at V. I. on November 18. Mrs. Easton spoke on the prevention and cure of tuberculosis. She emphasized the need for funds for the prevention of the disease, and urged the students to purchase Christmas seals.

The sale of Christmas seals will begin at Intermont sometime in the near future. The committee in charge consists of Jewel Walker, chairman, Anne Toeler, Florence Rogers, Frances Harris.

entertainment of the disabled veterans at Mountain Home Hospital in Johnson City, Tenn. He suggested that the new unit at V. I. might organize entertainment projects to present to these men. He explained the need for international projects, such as sending notebooks to students overseas, helping them spiritually as well as physically.

Details of the new Unit at V. I. will be released to the student body at a later date.

Y. W. A. Entertains For Orphans

Seven children from the Janie Hammett Home, all pre-school age, spent the afternoon eating popcorn and doughnuts and listening to the tales of Uncle Remus, as guests of the V. I. Chapter of Y. W. A. which sponsored their trip to the movie, "Song of the South", Thursday afternoon, November 6. This was one of the community service projects which the Y. W. A. carries out from time to time throughout the school year.

The publication of her book brings with it the wrath of the college. Led by Jinks, the students and faculty determine to deprive Drizzle of her diploma.

The news that Drizzle will graduate does not console the two roommates who now realize that one of them must lose Jeff. This problem is soon solved with the announcement that Jeff and the French teacher are to be married.

Members of the stage crew were: technician, Miss Alyce Aaron; electrician, Clarissa Smith; property manager, Betty Wayne McNutt; assistant, Margaret Callaway; wardrobe mistress, Margaret Ann Helfer; stage manager, Rebecca Barksdale; and house manager, Kathryn Gray.

Beauty is what gets the girl the dates that rob her of her beauty sleep.
